

DANIEL SIH BIO

Daniel is the co-founder of Spacemakers®, a productivity consulting group for busy leaders.

His book "Spacemaker - how to unplug, unwind and think clearly in the digital age" won best personal development book in the Australian Business Book Awards in 2021, and was a finalist for best technology book and best cover design.

As a trainer, coach and keynote speaker, Daniel has worked with CEO's, executives, and other senior professionals throughout Australia and beyond. He is the creator of best-selling productivity courses such as Email Ninja, List Assassin and Priority Samurai with more than 20,000 students online and offline.

Daniel has a broad professional history, includes leadership roles in physiotherapy, health management, project management and Christian ministry.

Daniel lives in Tasmania, Australia with his wife, Kylie, and their three children, Naomi, Caleb and Jethro. He also keeps fourteen pure-bred chickens who eat a lot of grain and lay too few eggs.

To learn more about Daniel and his work at Spacemakers, please visit www.spacemakers.com.au.

SHORTER BIO

Daniel is the co-founder of Spacemakers®, a productivity consulting group for busy leaders.

His book "Spacemaker - how to unplug, unwind and think clearly in the digital age" won best personal development book in the Australian Business Book Awards in 2021

As a trainer, coach and keynote speaker, Daniel has worked with CEO's, executives, and other senior professionals throughout Australia and beyond, ranging from global corporations and businesses to universities and non-profits.

He is the creator of best-selling productivity courses such as Email Ninja and Making Space (digital wellness training) with more than 20,000 students online and offline.

Daniel lives in Tasmania, Australia with his wife, Kylie, and three children, Naomi, Caleb and Jethro. He also keeps fourteen pure-bred chickens who eat a lot of grain and lay too few eggs.

To learn more about Daniel and his work at Spacemakers, please visit www.spacemakers.com.au.

VERY SHORT BIO (100 WORDS)

Daniel is the co-founder of Spacemakers®, a productivity consulting group for busy leaders.

His book "Spacemaker - how to unplug, unwind and think clearly in the digital age," won the Australian Business Book Award in 2021 for personal development.

Daniel is the creator of a number of best-selling productivity courses such as Email Ninja, List Assassin, Priority Samurai and Making Space, with more than 20,000 students online and offline.

He lives in Tasmania, Australia with his wife, Kylie, and three children, Naomi, Caleb and Jethro. He also keeps fourteen pure-bred chickens who eat a lot of grain and lay too few eggs.